F. Bayly, in the Chair. A communication was read from the Mayor, announcing his having signed on the 9th inst., "an act to organize a police system for the City of Washington, and to reduce all other acts in relation to the same into one."

Also, one in relation to the financial condition of the Corporation; transmitting the account of the Corporation with the Bank of Washington, and showing a credit to the Corporation of a littie upwards of $2,000; referred to the finance

Mr. Riggs, from the finance committee, reported a bill making an appropriation for compensation of the Board of Assessors; passed. Mr. Houston, from same committee, reported a joint resolution making an appropriation of $6,000 redeem the first instalment of stock of the Washington and Alexandria Railroad Company, guaranteed by the Corporation, and due Janua y 1, 1858; and $1,800 to pay the six months interest on the whole debt of 860,000 to the same date. The guarantee by the Corporation provides that the said stock shall be redeemed in ten instalments of $6,000 each, this being the first instalment falling due. Mr. Houston advocated the passage of the res-

Mr. Moore opposed its passage, and moved that it be laid on the table; he wished to have some information upon the matter before the Board, in order to determine the condition of the

Mr. Riggs stated that, being personally interested in the bonds he could not, of course, vo'e upon the resolutions Mr. Moore wanted the matter inquired into; he wished to know in what manner the Corporation became liable for the payment of this money, and urged the reference of the matter to a special committee, with instructions to report to this Board the circumstances under which the Corporation became liable for debts of the Washington and Alexandria Railroad Company; and how far it is so liable; and what security this Corporation has for the repayment of the whole or any part of this indebtedness.

Mr. Dove advocated the immediate passage of the resolution; he did not wish to discuss the matter any further, himself. The faith of the Corporation being pledged for its payment it could not repudiate its responsibilities. Further discussion ensued, in which various members joined with some warmth of manner, and finally the question recurring upon the motien of Mr Moore to refer, the ayes and noes were called, which resulted in the loss of the motion, and the resolution passed. Mr. Riggs offered a joint resolution instructing the Mayor, with the advice of the Corporation Attorney, to take such measures as may be deemed necessary for protecting the Corporation of Washlagton from loss by the failure of the Alexandria and Washington Railroad Company to pay its bonds and the interest thereon passed. Mr Miller, from the improvements committee, reported a bill making an appropriation for the purpose of laying a new floor and replacing decaved stringers on the bridge at the junction of R street north and New York avenue; passed. Also, from the same committee, a bill to supply a deficiency of appropriation for an improve ment in the First Ward; laid on the table.

Mr. Barry, from fire department's committee, reported a bill for the relief of William Parker Bill from Lower Board to supply a deficiency in the appropriation for grading and graveling Obio avenue; passed.

Mr. Moore, on leave, offered a joint resolution in relation to the Washington and Alexandria Railroad Company. Mr. Smith opposed the resolution, inasmuch is it was in substance as the instructions before

R: or .- About twelve o'clock last night a party of four persons went to the Vulcan House, on Pennsylvania avenue, near Sixth street, and behaved in a very disorderly manner, evidently trying to create a riot. The proprietor requested them to leave, but they refused and commenced a political discussion, but failing to draw the company into that, one of them offered to wrestle with any man in the room, "collar and elbow." No one accepted the challenge. One went to the bar and struck at the barkeeper with a cane. when Mr. Joseph Davidson took the cane from him and remonstrated against his behavior. He then struck Mr. Davidson in the mouth, and Mr. D. turned upon and punished him severely with the cane. A general fight was the result; two of the rioters ran off, and two, Wm. Hughes and Michael Jones staid and were awful'y beaten; Jones so badly that this morning he was entirely blind. Hughes and Jones were arrested by watchmen Donaldson and Donnelly, and Mr. Davidson also went with the officers to the guard

After a hearing this morning Justice Clark dismissed Mr. Davidson and committed Hughes and Jones to jail for Court.

CENTRE MARKET .- The heavy rain yesterday prevented the attendance of many country dealers, but the bucksters presented a very good supply at their stands in the sheds. A fine lot of pork was offered at the scales, and poultry was offered in the sheds and from the wagons. The prices were the same as on Saturday last. Good order prevailed throughout the market during the hours of sale. COURT OF CLAIMS YESTERDAY .- Mr. Elv resumed and concluded the argument for the claimant in the case of Mary W. Thompson, and the case was submitted Mr. Blair resumed the argument in the case of

THE THEATRE.—The new Washington theatre of Messrs. Stuart and Bourcicault has been open sufficiently long to admit of forming a fair judgment not only of its merits, but its prospects. It is sufficiently large for the accommodation generally of our play-goers with comfort and convenience, and yet not so large as that perhaps a hundred dollars per night must be thrown away on it, on account of its too great size, as was the case with the late National. On Saturday night last the audience numbered perhaps nine hun-dred, all of whom were comfortably and agreeably situated. Each succeeding night shows progress made in the work of its appropriate em-bellishment and finish. Last night, for instance, we noticed the first appearance of the beautiful drop curtain promised, which as a work of art is a gem rarely seen in such a position. The work of embellishing the front of the dress circle and lighting it, as well as the proscenium, has been pushed on with rapidity of late, and in capital

The vaudeville company, as well as the ballet dancers, have fairly won their way in the good opinion of the Washington public. Miss Polly Marshall and Dawson have already become prime favorites here; they are both capital performers, and never fail to give entire satisfaction. Miss Marshall is unsurpassed in genteel and eccentric comedy in this country, while Mr. Dawson as an eccentric and low comedian has not had his equal in this city since the days of the elder Jefferson. His remarkable discrimination and just appreciation of the difference between genuine wit, and buffoonery, and the care he manifests in eschewing the latter, while he makes the most of the capacity of his parts for the exhibition of the former, mark him for a cultivated gentleman, capable, at all times, of appreciating the fact that here, in proportion to the number of his audiences, he plays before more persons who go to the Theatre for an intellectual treat, than in any other American city.

We cannot in justice omit to add that the stage management is far more perfect than anything of the sort we have had in Washington since the days of Wood and Warren-which not a few of the Star's readers will remember with pleasure, indeed. Every person appearing upon the stage of this establishment is neat, and careful in the rendition not only of his and her "business," but in entirely appropriate costume and appearance, which, here, adds greatly to the popularity of such entertainments.

The ballet troupe, too, continue nightly to win more and more applause. Though the stage is too small to permit such a danseuse as Rolla to be seen to greatest advantage, her inimitable grace and agility have fairly captivated all; and her movements, directed to please a cultivated audience, never fail to be rewarded with a general enthusiastic appreciation. In her last dance of last evening-the "Carnival of Venice"-her exquisite poses and movements fairly carried the house by storm, from its commencement to the end-as on the Saturday night before, when she first appeared in it in the Federal Metropolis. Her corps of assistants, too, win such praise as was never bestowed here before upon the chorus and assistants of a ballet troupe. Though Paul Brillant is confessedly the best male dancer now in this country, he never appeared to such advantage as when surrounded by the nimble, elegant and graceful troupe of fairy forms who alternately float and fly around him now, as it were. On the whole, the enterprise may already be written down a triumphant success To-night, as the bill shows, a new vaudeville, as well as a new ballet, will be performed.

A Young Killer -About dark, last night, a small colored boy, named Jos. Washington, was very dangerously wounded in the side by another named Powhatan Fletcher, who is only ten years old. This morning Fietcher was called up for a hearing at the Central Guard-house, when it appeared that Washington was walking on the side walk near Second street and Pennsylvania avenue, when Fletcher, who had a knife open in his hand at the time, said to him "Jim Washington, I can whip you!" Washington replied "No you can't!" and walked up to him. Fletcher said "Yes I can," and thrust the knife in his side. Fletcher, after the case was over, said that Jim Washington was always "picking on him' and, one day, hit him with a stone. The little fellow was sent to jail for Court.

The wounded boy is in a very dangerous condition, and his father told the magistrate this m raing that he was unable to move.

CRIMINAL COURT .- Yesterday, the jury in the case of the United States vs. Joseph Ward for mayhem, committed upon Lorenzo Seymour, returned a verdict of guilty as indicted. The case of the United States vs. Thomas Mc-Nerhany was taken up, charging defendant with larceny of a revolver pistol. The jury found a verdict of not guilty. The Court then took up the case of the United States es. Wm Banning, charging the defendant with larceny of a horse and buggy from one Charles Wilson, on the 1st day of November, The buggy said to be of the value of $140, and the horse valued at $16. In the absence of the presecuting witness, this case was postponed, to be taken up this morning, and then the Court adjourned.

To-day the Court took up the case of William Banning, charged as stated in our report of yesterday's proceedings. This case had proceeded for some time when, it becoming necessary for a witness to identify the accused it was discovered that he was absent from the Court room. A bench warrant was issued to bring him before the Court; and in the interim the Court called Benjamin Woods, convicted of manslaughter, to the bar, and sentenced him to eight years imprisonment in the penitentiary. The sentence to ta e effect from and after the 28th instant. The defendant, Wm. Banning, here not appearing, his recognizance was forfeited, and the trial necessarily suspended.

THE COLUMBIA LODGE FRETIVAL .- Odd Fel lews' Hall was crammed last night, despite the weather, and had the day been fine, the managers would have been put to their wits' end to accommodate a tenth part of their guests. As it was, it required the most economical packing on the part of these active and ubiquitous gentlemen to find room for the rush of visitors. However, everybody was in such capital humor that it was not difficult to induce them to accommodate themselves to the circumstances; and from the fact that the crowd was not appreciably diminished at four o'clock this morning, it may well be supposed that the enjoyment of the occasion was a good deal ahead of the discomforts. Next time, though, that Columbia Lodge gives a Festival, we advise them to roof in Judiciary Square, on the mall; for no single room in the city has accommodation for all who are disposed to attend.

New York. Mr. Granberry, after reciting the good works of the order, which, though not himself a member, he had witnessed, proceeded to define the relationship sustained by Christianity to such orders as these, and demonstrated conclusively that there is no possible conflict or rivalry between Christianity and Odd Followship, but that the latter receives its light from the former as does the earth from the glorious orb of day. Mr Fenton, in his address, also urged that Odd Fellowship, which, in the fullness of time, will

After the addresses, the eighteen orphan children under the care of Columbia Lodge were made very happy by the reception of various gifts. books, jewelry, &c., and the presentation of which was made by Grand Master J. R. Piper. The programme embraced a variety of other interesting particulars. There was some excellent vocal music by an amateur quartette party, accompanied by Prof. Foertsch upon one of Ellis's grand pianos; Withers' Band contributed their quota of enlivening instrumental music; and the committee occupied themselves during the interstices of the performance in furnishing a profuse and excellent supply of refreshments, one item of which deserves special notice, viz: the truly delicious ice cream furnished by Ridenour. Additional from Utah. Sr. Lovis, Jan. 12.-Utah dates of Decemb Ist have been received here. They state that the troops are all in winter quarters at Fort Bridger, except Cook's command, which is 40 miles dis tant, where a scant supply of grass remained. The troops were comfortably stationed. The weather was very mild, and good health pre-vailed. The provisions on hand were sufficient to last till the 1st of June. Two-thirds of the animals, however, were dead.

It was reported that the Mormorns were preparing to leave for the British possessions, and that pioneer parties had already left. Young had sent a quantity of salt to Col. Johnon, and the latter replied that he would hang any messenger from the same quarter on a similar errand. Young had also sent an invitation to the United States officers to partake of winter hospitalities at Salt Lake city.

It is stated that Col. Johnson feels assured that the Mormons will leave in the Spring. Colonel Cumming had issued a proclamation declaring the Territory in a state of rebellion; that the trial of the Mormon leaders will be the first course he will pursue; this failing, he will 'resort to military force. He commands all armed bodies to immediately disband, and return to their homes.
